Camp Notre Dame, sponsored by the Catholic Diocese of Erie, and grounded in Gospel values and virtues, is dedicated to the continuing growth of youth and family by enriching their spiritual, cultural, intellectual, and physical development in an atmosphere of nature and self-worth, all in harmony with God's created world. We do this through a philosophy of CA/R/E. Every activity, every experience is to be a healthy combination of Christ-Awareness, Recreation, and Education. All three of these are so joined that if any one of them is absent, the camp no longer has reason to continue. It is at the heart of who we are.

Camp Notre Dame Counselor is:

A mother, a father, a coach, a friend, a big brother or sister, a nurse, a hero, a teacher, a leader, a confidant, a leader at prayer, an example, a facilitator of growth, a witness to Gospel values, a catalyst for fun, a seeker.

The Counselor

The narrow path winds between the trees,
We follow its each and every turn.
A subtle smell rides on the summer breeze.
I see it lift the fronds on every fern.

I love the woods when evening starts to fall
A perfect ending for a perfect day
To me it is the finest time of all
But my young camper girls don't feel that way.

We left the cabin, a woodsy comfort zone
And hiked out into the woods at night.
Each little girl feels like she's alone
And nothing I can say will make it right.

We sit around the fire; s'mores are neat;
Crazy camp songs are all that we would sing.
Sleeping in the tree house is a treat
And a dozen sleeping bags lie in a ring.

The girls awake. It is a different sight.
Their spirits soar with the rising sun.
They'll tell the world "I slept out over night!"
If there are miracles then I've just seen one.
