Camp Notre Dame is not responsible for lost or stolen items (and please double check for your camper's most important things before leaving). Campers can be sent home for inappropriate behavior like; tobacco use and vaping, bullying, harassment, profanity, blasphemy, swearing, fighting, and/or causing harm to others.

2026 Health /Media Release Forms

Bring completed Health /Media Release Forms to registration or email a copy to nurse@campnotredame.com. Registration will include each camper and parent meeting with the nurse to allow for health screening and discussion of the Health Form. TETANUS MUST BE CURRENT (WITHIN THE PAST 10 YEARS).

Bunk Assignments

Cabin assignments are made according to camper age. Assignment to a particular cabin is at the discretion of the Camp Director and because cabins are generally filled, changes of assignments cannot be made at registration.

NOTES

1) Please speak with the Summer Director of the office if your camper has a commitment during the week (doctors appointment, an important game, recital, or family event) and they need to be picked up during the week. We will work with you to figure out a good time to pick them up. We ask that you try to limit camper's time away from the week to help improve their CND experience. 2) All belongings must be marked with the camper's initials or name. 3) CND Gear will be available for sale at the camp store at Sunday check-in and after the closing campfire ceremony on Friday. 4) Nothing "good" should be sent to camp, we don't dress up! 5) Check out our FAQs section of our website to get more great info about CND.

Mission Statement

Camp Notre Dame, sponsored by the Catholic Diocese of Erie, and grounded in Gospel value and virtue, is dedicated to the continuing growth of youth and family, by enriching their spiritual, cultural, intellectual and physical development in an atmosphere of nature and self-worth, all in harmony with God's created world. Consistent with this primary mission, Camp Notre Dame discriminates against none and welcomes each and all who come to experience it.

Camp Notre Dame is located just off Eaton Road in Fairview, Pennsylvania -- Only 4 miles west of Erie International Airport on Route 5 with easy access from Routes I-90 and I-79.
